

Second Grade I Can Statements for Term 4

Reading/Comprehension

- I can identify the beginning, middle, and end of a story.
- I can identify the characters in a story I read this week.
- I can identify the difference between the facts and opinions in a story I read this week.
- I can identify text features in a nonfiction text I read this week.
- I can visualize what is happening in a story I read this week.
- I can ask questions to understand the characters that I read about this week.
- I can identify a cause and effect in a story I read this week.

Reading/Fluency

- I can read The way I speak.
- I can use highs and lows in my voice (expression).
- I can read words with accuracy and self-correct my mistakes.
- I can read at the correct speed or rate.

Grammar

- I can identify and use contractions correctly.
- I can identify a possessive noun and use it correctly in a sentence.
- I can identify and use adverbs.
- I can identify and use adjectives.
- I can use and identify formal and informal English.
- I can identify a complete sentence.
- I can identify declarative and interrogative sentences.
- I can identify exclamatory and imperative sentences.

Vocabulary

- I can identify an antonym and use it correctly.
- I can identify an antonym, synonym, the meaning of a word and use it in a sentence.
- I can use definitions to understand a word. I can use words correctly in a sentence.

Writing/Oral Language

- I can predict what will happen next in a story I am reading this week.

I can identify the characters in a story I read this week, and discuss it with a family member.

I can identify one fact and one opinion from a story I read this week and tell a family member.

I can identify and write down text features from a nonfiction text I read this week.

I can draw and label a picture I visualized while I read the fluency passage this week.

I can write an opinion piece and introduce the topic, state my opinion, give reasons to support my opinion, use linking words, and give a concluding statement.

Math

I can review all the math concepts that I have been taught.